

HFSC's new exoneree board member available for interviews

June 11, 2019

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Houston Forensic Science Center's newest board member, Anna Vasquez, one of four women wrongfully convicted and later exonerated in a case that made national headlines, will be available for one-on-one interviews on Thursday June 13.

Ms. Vasquez is one of the women who became known as the "San Antonio Four" after the case against them made national news, including false allegations that led to years of imprisonment.

To schedule an interview with Ms. Vasquez, please contact Ramit Plushnick-Masti at 713-703-4898 or via email at media@houstonforensicscience.org.

WHEN: June 13, 2019

WHERE: 500 Jefferson St., Houston, Texas 77002

Ms. Vasquez will be available for interviews upon request beginning at 10:30 a.m.
